

ACTIVITY 24: REIMAGINING LEAVES

Age: 8yrs and above

Materials: A4 paper, pencil, leaves

Steps:

1. Look around your house and outside and collect a few leaves of different shapes and sizes.
2. Observe the shape, size, texture and patterns on these. Look at it from all angles.
3. What if this was big or small? Does it remind you of something else? Do the patterns or shape of leaves remind you of something? Can they be a part of something else?
4. Re-imagine these leaves to be something else. How many different things can it be?
5. Observe the leaves and sketch your reimagination by observing the line, shapes, textures, patterns and details.

6. Make additions to your sketch to transform it into your reimagined leaves/object.
7. Once you finish drawing one idea, share your process of how a particular leaf reminded you of something else.
